Technical Advisory Group Member

Living Future Europe

Feb 2026 - Present · 7 mos

I have been selected to be a member of the Technical Advisory Group of Living Future Europe in 2026.

Living Future Europe (LFE) is a non-profit association with the mission to make the world work for 100% of humanity, in the shortest possible time, through spontaneous cooperation without ecological offence or disadvantage of anyone, catalysing the transformation toward communities that are socially just, culturally rich, and ecologically restorative.

LFE is playing an active role in championing the International Living Future Institute programs in Europe, focusing on educating and assisting a broader audience of interested practitioners on how to build Living Building Challenge, Core Green Building, Zero Carbon, Zero Energy projects and help spur demand for healthy, transparent materials and Declare and Living Products as well as socially Just organisations.

LFE's mission is transforming Europe through a regenerative built environment. Through a:

- Think Tank: A regenerative lab developing and promoting paradigm shifting frameworks across Europe.

- Hub: Leading European Hub for regenerative ideas, frameworks, people.
- Network: A 'neural' community of leading practitioners, researchers, and visionaries.

Copenhagen, Capital Region of Denmark, Denmark

In today's fast-changing world, leaders are under immense pressure to drive growth, embrace technology change, meet customer expectations, be role models, and navigate cultural shifts.. But we mostly talk about technology and not enough about people - customers, employees, leaders...

That's why we've founded pantrium—space(s) where bold, curious leaders come together on their own terms to share insights, challenge ways of thinking, and explore diverse perspectives to grow as people and leaders.

Simply tap in or out of the network as it suits you and your calendar. You can listen to insightful podcast episodes, participate in interactive meetups, or tap into our LinkedIn community.

We help you create your own "recipes" of success!
